USEFUL INFORMATION

Preparing for your perfect look

While we specialise in bridal hair and makeup, our expertise extends far beyond the wedding morning. Our team also offers cutting, colouring and extensions, ensuring your hair is in its very best condition ahead of your big day.

Your pre-wedding hair appointments play a huge role in achieving your dream style. Whether it's perfecting your colour, refining your cut or adding extensions for volume and length, we recommend booking these appointments well in advance. We'd love to guide you through a personalised plan to make sure everything feels seamless and beautifully considered.

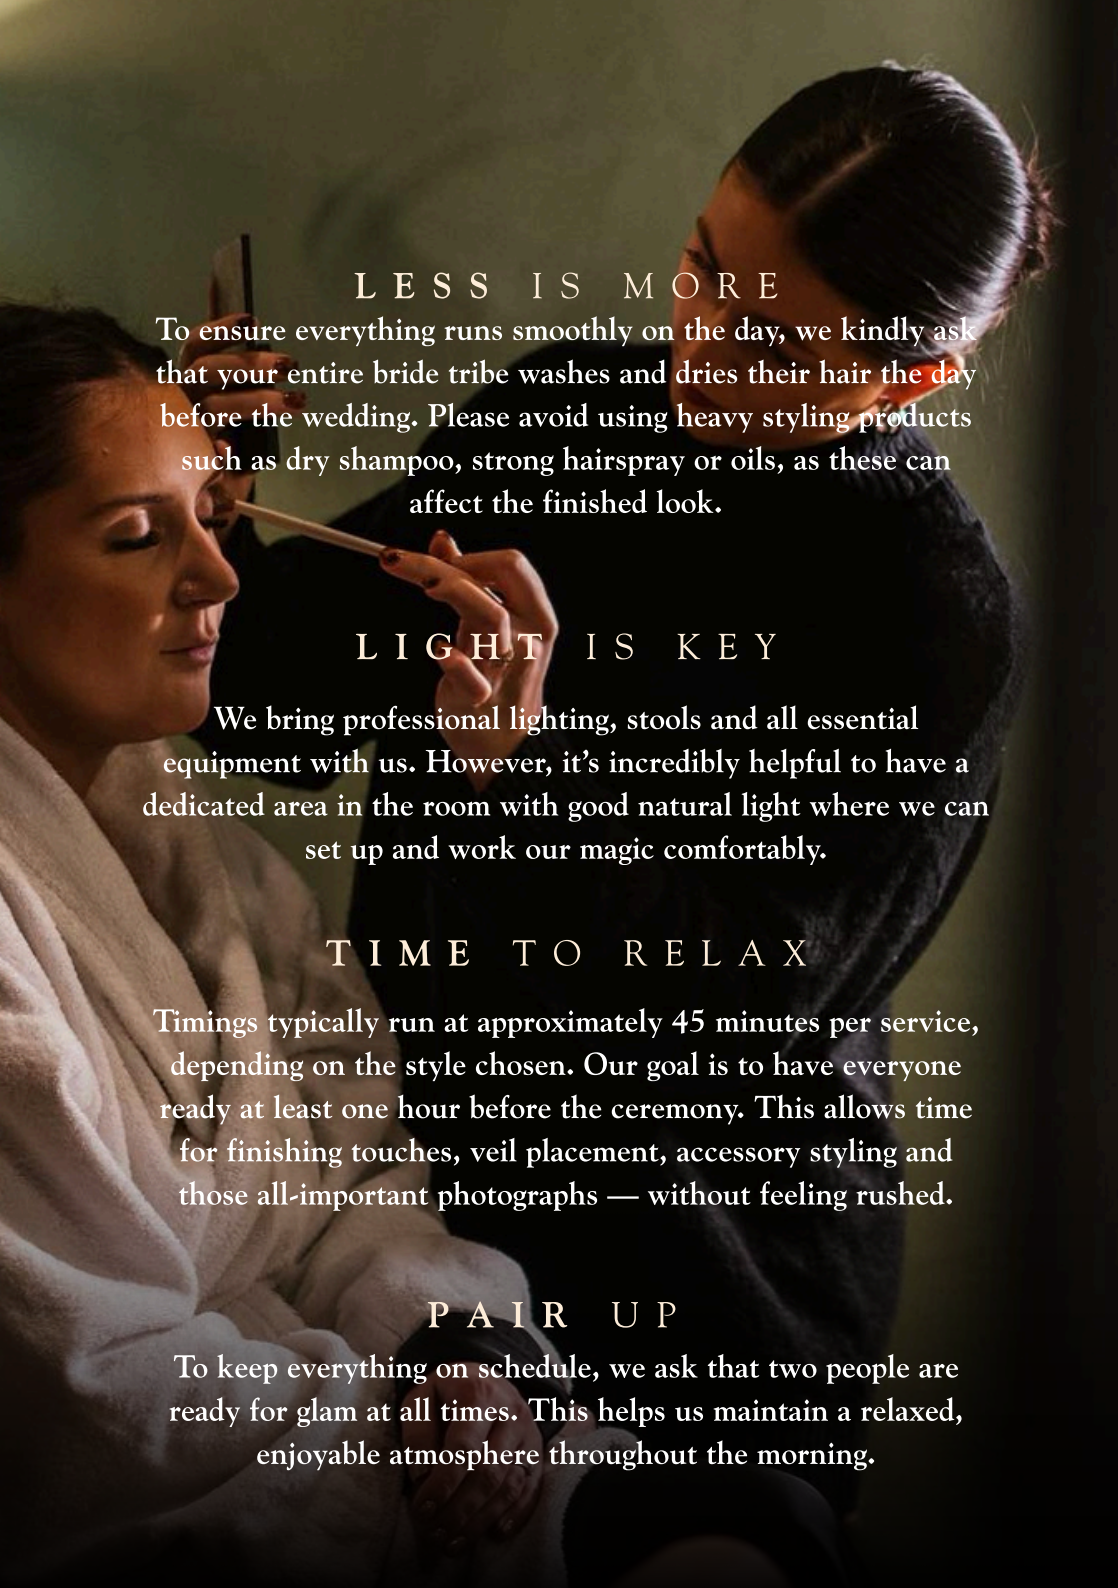

A little preparation goes a long way — and we're here to support you every step of the journey.

The Morning Of

creating a calm & seamless experience

LESS IS MORE

To ensure everything runs smoothly on the day, we kindly ask that your entire bride tribe washes and dries their hair the day before the wedding. Please avoid using heavy styling products such as dry shampoo, strong hairspray or oils, as these can affect the finished look.

LIGHT IS KEY

We bring professional lighting, stools and all essential equipment with us. However, it's incredibly helpful to have a dedicated area in the room with good natural light where we can set up and work our magic comfortably.

TIME TO RELAX

Timings typically run at approximately 45 minutes per service, depending on the style chosen. Our goal is to have everyone ready at least one hour before the ceremony. This allows time for finishing touches, veil placement, accessory styling and those all-important photographs — without feeling rushed.

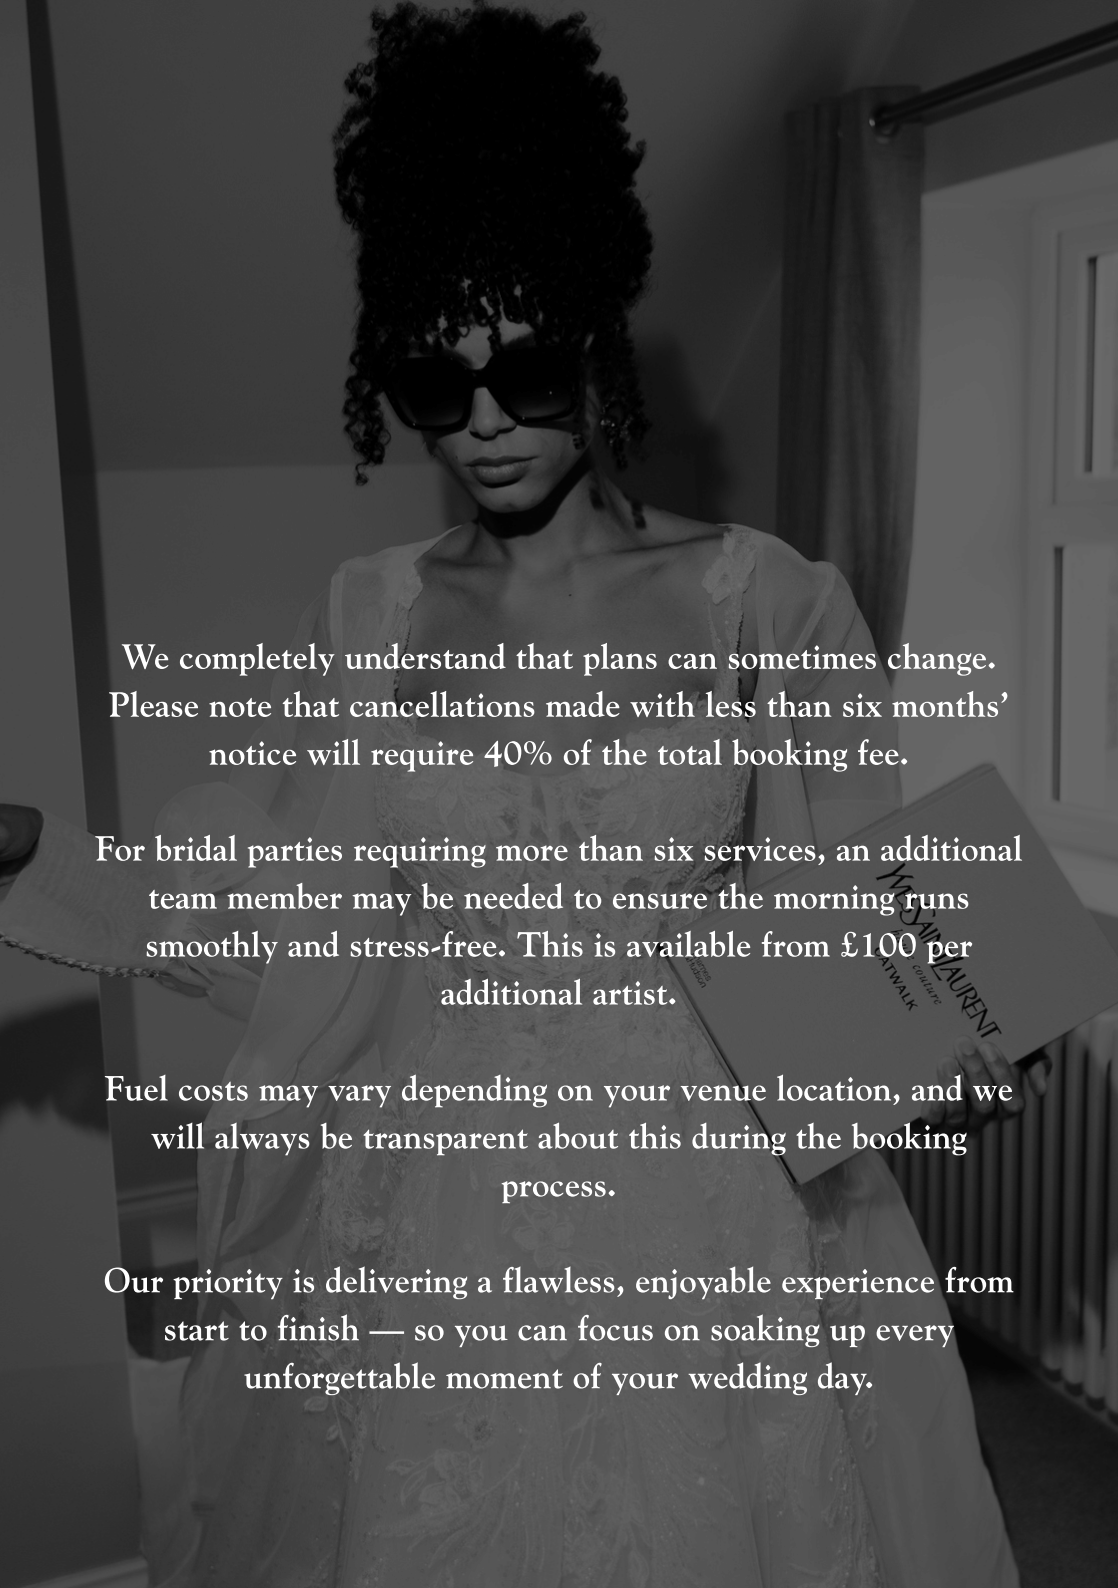

PAIR UP

To keep everything on schedule, we ask that two people are ready for glam at all times. This helps us maintain a relaxed, enjoyable atmosphere throughout the morning.

Investment

We completely understand that plans can sometimes change. Please note that cancellations made with less than six months' notice will require 40% of the total booking fee.

For bridal parties requiring more than six services, an additional team member may be needed to ensure the morning runs smoothly and stress-free. This is available from £100 per additional artist.

Fuel costs may vary depending on your venue location, and we will always be transparent about this during the booking process.

Our priority is delivering a flawless, enjoyable experience from start to finish — so you can focus on soaking up every unforgettable moment of your wedding day.

Trials

All trials take place in our salon and are encouraged to be booked in 4-6 months prior to your wedding date to ensure availability. We ask you to come prepared with photographs, any accessories and your veil.

The trials last around 1 hour for hair and 1 hour for makeup. Before you leave, we make sure you're made fully aware of the format and timings for the day along with answering any questions you may have.

Please note, while we would love to host your whole bridal party when your trial is taking place, our salon is only small and space is very limited. If you must bring someone with you, please try and limit this to one person.

How to Book

When you're happy and ready to secure your date, please let us know via email and send over your £200 non refundable deposit.

Please set the reference as the date of your wedding. Once this is received your date will then be secured in our diary and your booking will be confirmed!

Remainder of the balance is due 4 weeks prior to the wedding date.

with love,

“ I created MÈIA Bridal Hair & Makeup with one simple intention: to make women feel their most confident, beautiful and completely themselves on one of the most important days of their lives.

Over the years, I've had the honour of standing beside hundreds of brides as they step into their wedding dress, take that deep breath, and see their finished look for the very first time. That moment is why I do what I do.

My team and I pour our hearts into every wedding we are part of. We pride ourselves not only on beautiful results, but on professionalism, warmth and creating an atmosphere that feels relaxed and joyful from start to finish.

If you choose MÈIA to be part of your day, please know you are choosing a team who genuinely cares about the details, about the experience, and most importantly, about you.

I cannot wait to hear all about your plans and hopefully be part of your love story.
